WILSON SCORES U. S. STAND SINCE WAR

EIGHT-MINUTE RADIO ADDRESS
ONE OF BITTERNESS

TELLS MILLIONS THAT ATTITUDE IS IGNOBLE

America Can Yet Retrieve Its Past
and Render the World Incomparable
Service.—Versailles Treaty Made a Scrap of Paper.

Washington.—Into an eight-minute speech, Woodrow Wilson compressed one of the bitterest strictures ever hurled at those responsible for what he termed as America's withdrawal "into a sullen and selfish isolation, which is deeply ignoble because manifestly cowardly and dishonorable."

While more than 1,000,000 people listened, the war president talked by radio from his home here and delivered one of the most forceful addresses of his career. He said:

"The anniversary of Armistice Day should stir us to a great exaltation of spirit because of the proud recollection that it was our day.

"A day, which, above all those early days of never-to-be-forgotten November, lifted the world to the high levels of vision and achievement, upon which the great war for democracy and right was fought and won, although the stimulating memories of that happy time of triumph are forever marred and embittered for us by the shameful fact that when victory was won—won, be it remembered, chiefly by the indomitable spirit and valiant sacrifices of our own incomparable soldiers—we turned our backs upon our associates, refused to bear any responsible part in the administration of peace or the firm and permanent establishment of the result of the war won at so terrible a cost of life and treasure, and withdrew into a sullen and selfish isolation, which is deeply ignoble, because manifestly cowardly and dishonorable.

"This must always be a source of deep mortification to us, and we shall inevitably be forced by the moral obligations of freedom and honor to retrieve that fatal error and assume once more the role of courage, self-respect and helpfulness which every true American must wish to believe to be our true part in the affairs of the world.

"That we should thus have done a great wrong to civilization at one of the most critical turning points in the history of mankind is the more to be deplored because every anxious year that has followed has made the exceeding need for such services as we might have rendered more and more manifest and more and more pressing, as demoralizing circumstances which we might have controlled have gone from bad to worse until now, as if to furnish a sort of sinister climax, France and Italy between them have made waste paper of the treaty of Versailles and the whole field of international relationship is in a perilous confusion.

"The affairs of the world can be set straight only by the firmest and most determined exhibition of the will to lead and make the right prevail. Happily, the present situation of the affairs of the world affords us an opportunity to retrieve the past and to render mankind the incomparable service of proving that there is at least one great and powerful nation which can put aside programs of self-interest and devote itself to practicing and establishing the highest ideals of disinterested service and the constant maintenance of the exalted standards of right.

"The only way in which we can show our true appreciation of the significance of Armistice Day is by resolving to put self-interest aside and once more formulate and act upon the highest ideals and purposes of international policy. Thus, and only thus, can we return to the true traditions of America."

DEMURRERS IN JOURNAL SUIT ARE UPHOLD BY THE COURT

San Francisco.—Demurrers to the complaint against the Examiner and Chronicle publishing companies and employees, filed in the federal court by the Journal Publishing Company, charging restraint of interstate trade were sustained by Federal Judge Partridge and the Journal company allowed ten days in which to amend its complaint to show direct violations of the federal commerce law. Judge Partridge said that while other points had been raised in the demurrers they would undoubtedly be cleared in the amended complaint.

Arguments on the demurrers were made before the late Federal Judge Partridge, following his death the arguments were resubmitted to Judge Partridge.

MELLON PLANS BIG CUT IN INCOME TAX

PROPOSED SLASH TO AFFECT ALL CLASSES.

ADMINISTRATION HAS REDUCTION PROGRAM

Income Rates to be Reduced All
Along the Line.—Repeal of Government Charges on Telephones, Wires,
Amusements Urged.

Washington.—The administration has advanced a program of tax reductions, with cuts all along the line, affecting both the rich man and the poor man—but it significantly hinges the rosy promise on the shelving of a soldier bonus and the continuance of rigid government economy.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon makes detailed recommendations in a letter to Representative Green of Iowa, next chairman of the house ways and means committee. His plan of reduction is based on the surplus of $310,000,000 for each of the last two years and follows a thorough study by treasury experts.

He proposes:

1—Cuts in normal rates on individual incomes from 4 to 3 per cent and from 8 to 6 per cent.

2—A 25 per cent reduction in the tax on earned income so as to distribute the burden on the waged and salaried class more fairly.

3—Reduction of surtax rates by beginning their application at $10,000, instead of $6,000, and scaling them upwards to 25 per cent at $100,000. The maximum rate now is 50 per cent.

4—Limiting deduction of capital losses to 12½ per cent of the loss. The present law limits the tax on capital gains to 12½ per cent, but puts no limit on capital losses.

5—Limiting deductions from gross income for interest paid during the year and for losses not of a business character to the amount the sum of these items exceeds tax-exempt income of the taxpayer.

6—Taxing community property income to the spouse having control of the income. Many states now allow the husband and wife to file returns for one-half of the income.

In addition, Mellon urges repeal of taxes on telegrams, telephones, leased wires, theater admissions and miscellaneous nuisance taxes. He also advises reforms to increase efficiency of administration, including a board of tax appeals of the treasury, independent of the bureau of internal revenue.

Mellon estimated that the loss of revenue caused by this cut would amount to $70,000,000.

ONE KILLED, THREE INJURED, IN ARMISTICE DAY RACES

San Jose.—The death of one man and serious injuries to three others marred the American Legion Armistice Day races at the Santa Clara Fair Grounds here. Paul Arrighi, of San Jose, was almost instantly killed when his machine struck an oil spot in the dirt track, swerved around and crashed through the fence into the crowd of spectators.

In the second race at almost the same spot when the machine driven by Jean Rapp, San Jose, attempted to pass the car driven by John P. Hess, of Sacramento, carrying Milton Daniels, of Sacramento, the cars locked wheels and both shot over the rim of the race course. Rapp was unconscious when picked up. Hess sustained a dislocated shoulder and Daniels received severe cuts and bruises.

SACRAMENTO HAS BAD FIRE IN WHOLESALE DISTRICT

Sacramento.—Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the building and stock of the Fuller wholesale paint company, loss of which is estimated at $200,000. For several hours the blaze resisted the combined efforts of all downtown fire companies as hundreds of gallons of oils, turpentine, varnishes and prepared paints in the upper stories of the building poured their flaming mass into the fire below. The department laid lines of hose to fight the fire from its four sides before headway was made.

One fireman was injured by being knocked from a ladder by falling glass and was rushed to the emergency hospital.

Paris Sees New Peril
Paris.—Return of the former crown prince of Germany will precipitate a new crisis, observers here say. The ultimatum demanding his surrender to the allies will be rejected by Berlin, it is believed here. The French government is declared to be guarding against any possible monarchist rebellion with the former German heir at its head.

Golden State News of Interest to All

The governor denied an extradition warrant from Illinois for the return of Mrs. Ida McCormick, charged with embezzling funds of the McCormick Medical Institute, Chicago.

M. M. O'Shaughnessy, city engineer of San Francisco, has filed a suit for $125,000 damages, the Daily News being the defendant, for alleged unwarranted attacks on O'Shaughnessy's record of accomplishments.

Requisition papers have been issued by Governor Richardson for the return from Seattle of Gordon Phillips, who escaped from his guards while enroute to San Quentin. He was convicted at Los Angeles of burglary.

The federal intermediate credit bank at Berkeley will advance nearly $10,000,000 to farmers of the state this year on uncollected crops in warehouses. $100,000 is the savings to the farmers in interest payments through such loans.

A Paris dispatch tells of $12,000 paid by Revel L. English, a Californian, for the saddle, stallion, Edna May's King, said to be the highest price ever paid for such an animal. The horse was shipped to Portland for show.

It is reported that the Standard Oil Company has sent a rig into the Ager region of Siskiyou county to drill a test well on a location which geologists consider highly promising, and where a local company already have a well down 800 feet.

A rosary of Emperor Maximilian has been presented to the Museum of Art, Palace of Fine Arts, San Francisco. It is described as an exquisite example of filigree silver and was obtained from a monk in a Mexican convent by the emperor.

George A. Levy, former industrial commissioner of Denver, has accepted the executive directorship of California in the million dollar endowment fund being raised throughout America in behalf of the Jewish Theological Seminary of New York.

Practically all of the state highway between Redding and the Oregon line, except stretches already paved, will be rebuilt within the next two years, unless the plans of the highway department go awry. Bids for a part of the work will be opened Dec. 3.

Adjutant General Borree of the California national guards has resigned to give his attention to private affairs. Borree was appointed by Governor Hiram Johnson in 1915 and holds the commission of brigadier general commanding the Seventy-ninth infantry, Fortieth division, which he will retain.

After the state board of control announced its consent to the payment of the salary claims of the tuberculosis bureau the Supreme court continued the case brought by Mrs. Linia Mitschke, a field worker of the bureau, until December, with the understanding that the case would be dismissed if a settlement was reached.

Jose Lopez, apprehended by the Sacramento police, was taken to Marysville to face a possible charge of murder for shooting Paul Reuckert, railroad watchman of that city, on July 15. Reuckert has since the shooting been confined at the Western Pacific railroad hospital at Portola. Five operations have been undergone by the injured man and there is little hope for his recovery.

Action brought by the state reclamation board, acting as agent for the Sacramento and San Joaquin drainage district, resulted in the validation of $8,000,000 in bonds, voted to pay the cost of construction work on the Sutter-Butte by-pass. This will permit of their sale at an early date and the reclamation board will be able to take up $6,500,000 in outstanding warrants and $1,500,000 in interest charges.

John Francis Neelan, publisher of the San Francisco Call, was made defendant in a libel action by John S. Drum, president of the Mercantile Trust Company, for alleged malicious charges printed in the Call, growing out of the Key Route System rehabilitation project which is now in the hands of the railway commission. The complaint cites one paragraph which accuses Drum, as chairman of the reorganization committee of forcing the Key Route system into bankruptcy and voting himself a $50,000 fee for his services.

SCHOOL OBSERVES ARMISTICE DAY

The Campbell Grammar School held its Armistice Day exercises last Monday afternoon. A short program was given before the children in the morning. In the afternoon the school paraded down Campbell avenue headed by the school band. After the parade a program was given in the auditorium.

Mr. Cuthbertson had secured Mr. C. Cottrell, an attorney of San Jose and a member of the American Legion, as speaker of the day.

The program was as follows:

Song—Star Spangled Banner
Salute to Flag
Kindergarten Jazz Band.
"American's Welcome Home"

Recitation—Clara Knopf
Song—"Over There"
Introduction of the Speaker of the day—E. J. Cuthbertson

Address—C. Cottrell
The Girls Volley Ball Team will play Sunnyvale tomorrow afternoon on their grounds.

The school will hold its Thanksgiving program next Friday afternoon, Nov. 17, instead of the following Friday, as the teachers will give their play "The Hottentot" on the evening of that day, Nov. 23. The public is welcome to the Thanksgiving program.

SMOKING COURT CASE

It may not be generally known but it is part of the juvenile court law that a minor smoking cigarettes may be cited to appear before that court.

At the Father's Night meeting of the Home and School Club held recently, Judge Brown of the Juvenile Court, read the provisions of the law, enumerating the various reasons for minors becoming wards of the court, or being summoned to appear before that court, and smoking cigarettes was one of them.

Our school principals are making every effort to fulfill the requirements of the law in this respect, namely, to stop the smoking among the students and they should receive the help and co-operation of parents and all law abiding citizens. They are not craving the task but it is made part of their duty, and they cannot pick out some laws to uphold and omit others, and neither can other good citizens.

GOLDEN RULE DAY AT CAMPBELL

President Coolidge has endorsed the plan outlined by a recent International conference in Geneva asking people of fourteen countries to observe, Sunday, December 2, as Golden Rule Sunday.

The idea is for families to serve the same kind of dinner that the Near East Orphanages provide, and to give to that work the difference in cost between that and their usual Sunday dinner, to this cause.

Select one of the following menus:

1. Beans baked with corn syrup or macaroni with crumbs, onion sauce; stewed dried apricots; cocoa with condensed milk; bread.
2. Potato soup, condensed milk; rice and prunes, (condensed milk); cocoa, bread.

If the $10,000,000 losses in the Berkeley fire, Sept. 17, approximately $7,000,000 was not covered by insurance, and other losses to the amount of $200,000 were to those who carried no insurance at all. The $7,000,000 represents the insurance value of the property in excess of the amount carried.

Mrs. Eliza Potegian confessed to Fresno officers that she administered poison to her step-daughter Margaret Potegian, with intent to kill. Suspicion now points to her as responsible for the death of her husband and his son in her mania to be sole heir to her husband's $200,000 estate.

HIGH P.T.A. HEARS INTERESTING TALK

The High School P. T. A. held an interesting and profitable meeting Tuesday afternoon.

A quartet from the high school including Antone Bonnacorsa, Franklin Blaine, Gayno Eddleman and Yale Maxson, sang "She Sleeps My Lady Sleeps" and graciously responded to an encore with a humorous song ending with a local allusion.

At the last meeting the club voted to give a prize of $2.50 to the treasury of the class having the most mothers present, this attendance to be based upon a percentage as the size of the classes vary so much. Roll call of the October meeting resulted in a tie and the club decided to divide the prize.

A committee was appointed to revise the by-laws to conform more nearly with those of other societies. Other committees were named to serve refreshments to the basket ball teams, both boys and girls, after games with visiting teams, and another to find out the cost of some furnishings for the girls' rest room in the new gymnasium. Cups and plates have already been supplied for the kitchen.

Mrs. F. E. Duncan gave a report of the County Federation of P. T. A. which was held in the Grammar school Monday.

Before the speaker of the afternoon was introduced, Miss Olive Hanger played two very pleasing piano solos, "Joyful Moments" and "Woodland Echoes."

Mrs. Hummel of the high school faculty had secured the speaker for the afternoon, Edyth B. Urney, of San Jose, an orthopedic doctor. She explained very clearly and illustrated both by X-ray pictures and actual demonstrations, the causes, evidences and results of the most common defect in feet—"flat foot". As Miss Urney was in France with the orthopedic doctors in charge of the work of building up fallen arches in the feet of the soldiers she had wide experience as well as in her private practice.

She was speaking with the purpose, chiefly, of educating the mothers and teachers to recognize the beginnings of that trouble in their children and start corrective exercises, and her talk was highly appreciated.

TOWN SLOGAN

"Trade where you park" is the Commercial Association slogan. New signs are being made to place about the district by the Association stating miles to Campbell where you may trade where you can park. In many other business districts it is necessary to walk some distance from where you have parked your auto. Not so in Campbell, altho our streets are very busy ones.

SCHOOL PRESENTS NEW COMEDY

Owing to the success of "Deacon Dubbs" last spring the Faculty of the Campbell Union Grammar School are to stage another play on Friday evening, November the 23rd at 8:00 o'clock.

The play is being given to aid in paying off the debt incurred by the school when they purchased the beautiful sun-fast velvet curtains which now adorn the auditorium.

"The Hottentot" will be presented next Friday for the first time in Santa Clara County. It was secured through special arrangement with a New York play broker and only after the payment of a royalty.

To assure the people of the community as fine a production possible, they have secured Mr. Otis V. Montgomery to direct and supervise the production. Mr. Montgomery's skill in handling amateur performers was demonstrated by the performance of "Deacon Dubbs" which he directed. He has spent a number of years in the study of dramatic art and stage-craft together with varied experience upon the legitimate stage and in motion pictures.

Nearly all those who were in "Deacon Dubbs" are included in the cast, and "The Hottentot" shows great promise of being one of the outstanding performances of the year.

The price of admission is fifty cents for general admission, seventy five cents for reserved seats, and twenty-five cents for the upper half of the balcony.

BACHELORS SURPRISED

The pretty new bachelor home of Guy Shepherd and Merlin Bohmet was the scene of a very jolly surprise party Saturday evening.

Mah Jongg and whist furnished diversion until the refreshment, hour when an ample collation was served by the guests.

Participating in the event were Mrs. Hattie Baugh, the Misses Helen and Janice Baugh, Barbara Dow, Lois Gardner, Pauline Blaine, Margaret Austin and Claude Brady, Elwood Baugh, Keith Knoff, Robert Scholtz, Arthur Wegel and the two victims.

The guests spoke in very complimentary terms of the recently completed bungalow where these young men are successfully keeping house.

MEN'S NIGHT TUESDAY

Tuesday evening was Men's Night at the new gym and it was a big night. If you want to know about it ask anyone who was there. Oh Boy! In costumes regulation, mixed and almost nil the old boys pranced about the floor playing with a spirit that some had almost forgotten existed and cheering with that old time pep. Hand ball was the occasion and already some are saying that once a week is hardly often enough.

Every Tuesday night there will be some excitement and much noise and if you would like to get in on it or enjoy watching come on in. The water's fine, I'll say. The new showers with the automatic heater is a great treat after a fast game and prove a very popular adjunct to the gym.

Tuesday night, sure.

Where the Once Limpid Water Broke Into Jeweled Riffles on Rocky Ledges

By DR. JAMES ALEXANDER HENSHALL, in Outlook.

Last summer, in the leafy month of June, I visited a stream in southwestern Ohio that was once a famous black-bass stream and one of my favorite fishing resorts. I had not fretted its surface with feathered lures for nearly forty years. I put on my wading boots and started down the stream, casting a brown hackle across and down stream, and occasionally up stream, but all to no purpose, as my fly was unnoticed, or mayhap the fish were not there.

Floating with the lazy current were patches of greasy scum, and the water was far from clear, though not turbid. Instead of the old-time woody smell of the stream and its banks, there was a decidedly unpleasant odor from the stream and its banks. I was shocked at the great change in the stream and its surroundings. Where the once limpid water broke into jeweled riffles on the rocky ledges and went singing on its merry way, all was dull and listless; the glory of the living stream was gone, mayhap forever.

Casting my fly never so gently and carefully over likely places, my efforts seemed useless, for the fish were either not there or had lost their old-time eagerness and failed to respond to the most seductive casts. I was thoroughly discouraged and disheartened.

DOES NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING PAY?

This has come to be a superfluous question among men of business. There was a time when to have declared boldly and out loud in a public place that it paid to advertise in the newspapers would probably have stirred up a chorus of dissenters, but today advertising is better understood.

All advertising is good—some advertising is better—but the very best advertising on the face of the earth is that which slips into the home-town paper and goes direct to the home.

To be sure, the best bit of soil that ever lay out of doors requires something more than merely dropping the seed into the ground. Los Gatos business men are giving the Mail-News advertising its due co-operation.

WE ARE A LAND OF FIRES

October 7 to 13 was Fire Prevention Week all over the United States, devoted to reducing the record of $521,860,000 losses in 1923.

This campaign for safeguarding America against the fire losses included organized work from school children to President.

When one thinks of all the ways fires can start, from electric wiring to cigarette stubs, it is wonderful there are not more.

Strange that our country has never gotten over being a regular Terra del Fuego, or land of fires, as our total destruction, if we count forest and oil-well fires, exceeds losses of all South America.

Our president doesn't go into office until four months after election, because in the days of slow communication and stage coach transportation it took that long to find out who was elected and get him to Washington. Now the votes can be counted and the President rushed by airplane to the White House almost overnight. So it's sound sense, the recommendation by American Bar Association that our political system should be changed to put the president and congressmen into office immediately after election. We have many other stage coach systems in politics that need correction.

Pig Iron production in Great Britain has been declining for three months. Output still is much higher than the 1922 average, but the setback is emphatic nevertheless. Pig iron production is the weathervane of general business conditions. What's happening to the iron industry in Britain looks as if Europe is due for a halt, if not a reverse, in its recovery from the war.

Canada now is our best foreign trade customer, England second, Germany third. Germany lately has been the largest buyer in our exported cotton and copper. Which sums up the most important features of our present foreign trade situation.

Conditions are "favorable to a continuation of good business" report experts of Guarantee Trust Co., of New York. They predict the usual seasonal business pick-up this fall, and believe that drops in wholesale prices and securities have "prepared the way for more nearly stable and normal business." The chief thing needed is for the public to be confident of its ability to "keep things moving."

Sweet: The public debt of the United States is about 3,500 million dollars less than it was four years ago.

Bitter: Uncle Sam's future still is mortgaged for over six times that much.

Consolation: If the reduction continues at the same rate as since 1919, the debt should be wiped out in 1950.

"TOO MANY LAWS"

We have too many laws. No one knows the law in this country now, and no one can keep from violating some of the laws. There may be a time ahead, when the lawmakers will have the nerve to abolish some laws, and then pass a few,—just a few, to take their places.

DIARY OF A "TURK"

AN unusually intelligent farmer, having closely checked up on the habits of his birds, noticed that a fine turkey gobbler made a series of scratches in a sand plot in a remote corner of the field each day. The farmer examined the spot, and since he was, as we said, very intelligent, he deciphered the scratches to mean as follows:

"And now dear diary, Thanksgiving draweth near, which meaneth the end of yours truly. High tragedy? Not a bit. Let's be sensible. To be chewed, swallowed, digested and made into calories for some first class family is a fairish high destiny.

"Only season me up with Folger's spices bought at Blaine's.

"They pickled old King Tut in frankincense and myrrh and left him for a peck of thousand years, but as for me, I'd rather be made to taste good and eaten on the spot.

"So I'd like to be stuffed good and full with proper stuffing that's peppered with Folger's pepper and seasoned with Folger's sage.

"And don't let them surround me with other eatables not fit for my company.

"Have the canned things JHN.

"There's JHN PEAS and JHN STRINGLESS BEANS and JHN TINY SUGAR CORN, and JHN ASPARAGUS TIPS, I'll mix sociably with them.

"When the children call for more, I want the plates heaped up good and plenty. Let the growing kiddies, who need half again as much food as a man, have the thick drum sticks and chunks of breast; and let mammas who are over-weight nibble on my neck and back.

"I'd like, please, to spend the period of digestion in the company of Isleton Butter, and you can say that I prefer to any other the flavor of Blaine's Steel-Cut Coffee."

CRANBERRIES, the first in, are perfect. Make up the Thanksgiving sauce now.

NEW STORES TO TAKE CALIFORNIA TO EAST

During the past six months Los Angeles has been made headquarters for what is believed will become one of California's biggest assets.

The California Chain Stores Company has been incorporated under the laws of the state of California and one of the company's principal purposes is to operate a chain of stores in Eastern cities and specialize in California products, making these stores typical of California.

The main object of these stores will be to distribute both wholesale and retail California products, such as oranges, lemons, nuts, figs raisins, olives and olive oils and such other products that California supplies to the world.

The company will distribute California dried fruits and also specialize in California canned goods.

MABEL HENRY AT REST

On Saturday afternoon the large gathering of friends with the wealth of flowers, assembled at the Congregational church to pay silent respect to one of its members who had fallen asleep, bore witness to the high place which she had held in the estimation of the community.

Mrs. Mabel Henry was widely known and universally liked and respected, on account of her cheerful disposition, her self-sacrificing labors in every good cause, and her faithful performance of duty.

Mabel Irwin who was the daughter of a Presbyterian minister, was born in Iowa in April, 1871, and spent her girlhood in that state, moving with her family to Kentucky where she was married. At one time she lived in Red Bluff before finally moving west to remain, when she came to Campbell, where she had made her home for eighteen years and where her children were raised and educated.

During her residence here she had engaged in nursing and in cannery work, in both lines achieving success and popularity, and continuing her work long after she should have been resting and receiving medical care. When finally compelled to succumb to her illness, the best of care and attention was available and after leaving the St. Helena Sanitarium, her recovery seemed possible, but a severe attack of pneumonia hastened the end, and on November 7 she was relieved of her sufferings, death occurring at the home of her sister in Santa Ana.

She leaves of immediate relatives her daughter, Evelyn, and son Irwin, and six sisters, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. M. E. Wells, Mrs. M. C. Bowman, Mrs. F. F. Morrissey, Mrs. F. H. Huntington, and Mrs. Katherine Fellows.

The services held Saturday afternoon were a loving tribute to her memory. Among the many beautiful things mentioned, Rev. W. E. Eckles said of her:

"Both by training and inclination she was fitted to help the unfortunate as a nurse. She eased the last days of many. As a friend, she was loyal. As a member of a fraternal order, she was dependable. As a member of the church, she was faithful. As a Christian she was sincere and active. She might have been excused from an active part in caring for the needy in our midst, but she cherished the opportunities to help as a privilege."

The choir sang those beautiful hymns, "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "My Father Knows." The remains were taken to the Los Gatos cemetery, where the interment services were in charge of Orchard City Grange, of which she had long been a devoted and beloved member.

The following friends served as pall bearers: W. R. Conland, A. B. Townsend, A. E. Brydon, H. V. Archibald, E. K. Clendenning and James Fablinger.

NEW HALL SCENE OF PRETTY PARTY

One of the very pretty parties of the season was given Wednesday afternoon in the Community room of the library, by Mrs. Ralston Alison, Mrs. L. T. Lenox, and Mrs. W. H. Stray. The room was charmingly decorated with bowls and baskets of beautiful chrysanthemums in white and pastel shades, with golden and brown hued button ones in the rest room.

Mah Jongg and cards were played and Mrs. Shadle and Mrs. Hyde were greatly enjoyed in delightful solos, with Mrs. Robson as accompanist.

Dainty refreshments were served, ices and favors carrying out the color scheme of pink.

The hostesses were assisted in one feature of the entertainment by Masters Homer Hyde, Buddie Lenox and Philip Robson, and in the serving of refreshments by several of the young ladies.

J. E. Gamo is extending his store building on Railroad avenue almost doubling his store room and front. He has built up quite an extensive ice business and his grocery department has been constantly growing. With the added room he will be able to care for his patrons more conveniently.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting with Mrs. F. C. Farr, Wednesday November 7. Following the usual opening exercises and a short business session, our president, Mrs. M. J. Wilson, gave a report of the State W. C. T. U. convention held at Stockton, October 22-26 inclusive, with over 300 delegates in attendance. The memorial services for the members who have been called higher are always impressive, but were made more beautiful by the playing of organ chimes as the State President gave the tribute as each name was called.

Mrs. Anna Marden De Yo in her address on Law Enforcement said: "The next time some one tells you that 'there is more liquor drunk than ever' ask him if he believes the wealthy wine-man who had to serve three months in the county jail at Alameda and pay a $1500 fine would agree to that; in spite of the fact that he had three conspicuous citizens, an ex-governor, a district attorney and an ex-president of the bar association as character witnesses. Give the reply of Federal Judge J. S. Partridge to their statement that he had always been a good citizen: 'With all respect to the opinion of these gentlemen, I want to take occasion to emphatically dissent. I do not consider him a good citizen at all.'"

"Tell them of Peter McDonough, king of San Francisco underworld, who is facing a fifteen months jail sentence and a fine, and of twenty-five restaurants, soft drink parlors and road houses ordered locked up for periods of from six months to one year by Judge Ferrington, of San

Signs of Trouble.

A Montana fire marshal lists the following as sure signs that something unpleasant is going to happen to you: "A crack in your chimney is a sure sign that you are going to move. If you dream of smelling smoke, it is a sign you are asleep and had better wake up. To see a paperhanger papering over a flue-hole indicates an impending loss. It is bad luck to look into a dark closet with a match. If you can see your shadow from an oil lamp while filling a gasoline stove it indicates a crowd of people coming to your house. When the wind moans, it is extremely bad luck to burn trash near the house. If you smell gas or gasoline and look for it with a light, it foretells that you are about to start on a long journey. Even if your house and furniture are covered by insurance, it is extremely unlucky to have them burn on Friday the 13th."

Francisco.
"Of the 184 saloons running in the 'South of Market' district when the Wright law went into effect in December 1922, less than 30 are now running and none are selling liquor openly."

At the Banquet of Nations representatives of thirty countries, in the national costume of each, gave a report of what had been accomplished in her country along temperance lines. As each country was called the national air was played softly and while the report was being given two flag bearers, one carrying the American flag and the other the native flag, stood behind the speaker, forming a tableau.

Word has been received from Mrs. Cora Baker, state and county superintendent of Child Welfare, that she would be very glad to give an address upon her work at our next meeting, November 21. Mrs. Baker was expected last month but was unable to come because of illness.

Santa Clara County was highly honored by the election of Mrs. Mary E. Hollingsworth, Santa Clara county president, to the office of second vice-president of the state W. C. T. U.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Wilson, Wednesday, November 21 at 2:30, when a cordial welcome will be given to all our members and their friends.

Life Saving Work Of Red Cross Corps Wars on Drownings

The insignia of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps on the bathing apparel of men, women and youths is seen everywhere at favorite bathing places along the coasts, rivers, lakes and ponds. In its unrelenting campaign to reduce loss of life by drowning the Red Cross is making constant headway. The demands for instruction from organizations in all parts of the country were so numerous the past year that it was necessary to more than double the staff of Red Cross instructors. This work of training for water life-saving showed an enrollment of over 30,000 volunteers enlisted for duty on patrol, for rescue and resuscitation, all competent to instruct others in the standard water-safety methods. The Red Cross by request of the War Department gives water first aid training at the United States Military and Naval academies and in the military training camps for reserve officers and civilians. The four cash prizes awarded by the Red Cross last year for heroic rescues were conferred upon two girls, a boy and a man, indicating that the youths of the country stand well at the top in conserving life along our water courses.
